Important Risk Warning

- Unit Trusts, Bonds, structured products (including Equity Linked Investments, Structured Notes, Deposit Plus, Structured Investment Deposits and Capital Protected Investment Deposits) are investment products. Together with Certificates of Deposit (CDs), they are NOT equivalent to time deposits. Some Unit Trusts and Structured Products may involve derivatives. The investment decision is yours but you should not invest unless the intermediary who sells it to you has explained to you that the product is suitable for you having regard to your financial situation, investment experience and investment objectives.
- Structured Investment Deposits, Deposit Plus, Capital Protected Investment Deposits and CDs are not protected deposits and are not protected by the Deposit Protection Scheme in Hong Kong.
- The price of products may move up or down and may become valueless. Losses may be incurred as well as profits made as a result of buying and selling the products.
- In the worst-case scenario, the value of the products may be worth substantially less than the original amount you invested (and in an extreme case could be worth nothing).
- Issuer's Risk – Bonds, CDs, structured products are subject to both the actual and perceived measures of credit worthiness of the issuer. There is no assurance of protection against a default by the issuer in respect of the repayment obligations. In the worst case scenario, you might not be able to recover the principal and interest/coupon if the issuer defaults on the Bonds, CDs and Structured Products.
- Investors should not make investment decisions based on this material alone.
- Investment involves risks. Past performance of products is no guide to future performance. For details of the products, the related fees and charges and risk factors, please refer to the individual product materials and/or offering materials.
- RMB denominated products are subject to liquidity risk as there may be no regular trading and active secondary market for RMB Income Instruments. The bid and offer spread of the price of RMB Income Instruments may be large, so investors may incur significant trading and realisation costs and may suffer losses accordingly.
- The value of the HSBC Gold Token reflects the value of gold and fluctuation in the price of the gold may materially adversely affect the value of the HSBC Gold Token. The price of the gold can be unpredictable, sudden and drastic, and may be affected by complex political and macroeconomic factors which include but are not limited to interest rates, inflation, economic growth, geopolitical tension and the sale of gold by investment vehicles tracking gold markets.
- Investment in HSBC Gold Token is not the same as acquiring a physical gold bar. As an investor, you will receive a fractional ownership of the Gold as defined in the Principal Brochure and Key Facts Statement. Investors will not be able to take physical delivery of Gold at any time. There is no market for the trading of the Tokens. Investors in general may only redeem their investment by selling the Tokens back to the Bank, at a price determined by the Bank, which includes Bank's margin.

- Your investments in the HSBC Gold Token are not principal protected. Your investments in this product may fall in value and therefore, your investments in the gold represented by HSBC Gold Tokens may suffer losses. In the worst-case scenario, you can lose your entire investment.
- HSBC Gold Token is not, and not equivalent to, a time deposit. For further details including the product features and risks involved, please refer to the HSBC Gold Token Key Facts Statement, Principal Brochure and other Product Documents.
- Investors can only trade the Gold represented by the HSBC Gold Token via the Bank, subject to the below:
 - (i) the price of the Gold represented by HSBC Gold Tokens is determined by the Bank according to the pricing mechanism of the Product;
 - (ii) any trading outside the Gold Trading Hours will be subject to a higher Bank Margin of 5% at maximum; and
 - (iii) suspension of dealing may be imposed by the Bank.
- Additional risks are disclosed in the “Risk Disclosure” section. Please refer to “Risk Disclosure” section for details.

Risk Disclosure

Unit Trusts

- In the worst case scenario, the value of the funds may be worth substantially less than the original amount you invested (and in an extreme case could be worth nothing).
- Funds which are invested in certain markets and companies (e.g. emerging, commodity markets and smaller companies etc.) may also involve a higher degree of risk and are usually more sensitive to price movements.
- Credit Risk/Interest Rate Risk – a fund that invests in fixed income securities may fall in value if interest rates change, and is subject to the credit risk that issuers may not make payments on such securities. The price of the fund may have a high volatility due to investment in financial derivative instruments and may involve a greater degree of risk than conventional securities.
- Counterparty Risk – a fund will be exposed to credit risk on the counterparties with which it trades in relation to financial derivative instrument contracts that are not traded on a recognised exchange. Such instruments are not afforded the same protections as may apply to participants trading financial derivative instruments on organised exchanges, such as the performance guarantee of an exchange clearing house. A fund will be subject to the possibility of insolvency, bankruptcy or default of a counterparty with which a fund trades such instruments, which could result in substantial loss to a fund.

Deposit Plus (DPS)

- Deposit Plus is NOT equivalent to, nor should it be treated as a substitute for a time deposit. It is NOT a protected deposit and is NOT protected by the Deposit Protection Scheme in Hong Kong.
- Derivatives risk – Deposit Plus is embedded with FX option(s). Option transactions involve risks, especially when selling an option. Although the premium received from selling an option is fixed, you may sustain a loss well in excess of such premium amount, and your loss could be substantial.
- Limited potential gain – The maximum potential gain is limited to the interest on the deposit.
- Maximum potential loss – Deposit Plus is not principal protected. You must be prepared to incur a loss as a result of depreciation in the value of the currency paid (if the deposit is converted to the linked currency at maturity). Such loss may offset the interest earned on the deposit and may even result in losses in the principal amount of the deposit.
- Not the same as buying the linked currency – Investing in Deposit Plus is not the same as buying the linked currency directly.
- Market risk – The net return of Deposit Plus will depend upon the exchange rate of the deposit currency against the linked currency prevailing at the deposit fixing time on the fixing date. Movements in exchange rates can be unpredictable, sudden and drastic, and affected by complex political and economic factors.
- Liquidity risk – Deposit Plus is designed to be held until maturity. You do not have a right to request early termination of this product before maturity. Under special circumstances, the Bank has the right to accept your early redemption request at its sole discretion and on a case by case basis. The Bank will provide an indication of the redemption price upon such request.
- Credit risk of the Bank – Deposit Plus is not secured by any collateral. When you invest in this product, you will be relying on the Bank's creditworthiness. If the Bank becomes insolvent or defaults on its obligations under this product, you can only claim as an unsecured creditor of the Bank. In the worst case, you could suffer a total loss of your deposit amount.

- Currency risk – If the deposit currency and/or linked currency is not your home currency, and you choose to convert it back to your home currency upon maturity, you may make a gain or loss due to exchange rate fluctuations.
- Risks relating to RMB – You should note that the value of RMB against other foreign currencies fluctuates and will be affected by, amongst other things, the PRC government's control (for example, the PRC government regulates conversion between RMB and foreign currencies), which may adversely affect your return under this product. In case you receive RMB as a Linked Currency at maturity and you choose to convert your maturity proceeds to other currencies, you may suffer loss in principal. This product will be denominated (if the Deposit Currency is RMB) and settled (when you receive RMB at maturity) in RMB deliverable in Hong Kong, which is different from that of RMB deliverables in mainland China.

Renminbi ("RMB") Product

- There may be exchange rate risks if you choose to convert payments made on RMB related products to your home currency.
- RMB products may suffer significant losses in liquidating the underlying investments if such investments do not have an active secondary market and their prices have large bid/offer spreads.
- In general, RMB equity products are exposed to the usual kind of default risks that might be associated with equity products denominated in other currencies.
- RMB debt instruments are subject to interest rate fluctuations, which may adversely affect the return and performance of the RMB products.
- You could lose part or all of your principal if you choose to sell your RMB products prior to maturity.

Securities Trading

- Making available to you any advertisements, marketing or promotional materials is part of our Bank's ordinary course of securities dealing business. It shall not, by itself, constitute solicitation of the sale or recommendation of any investment products.
- Investment involves risk. Notwithstanding the benefits of offer(s) mentioned herein, you should carefully consider the risks and features of any investment products (including but not limited to equities/exchange traded funds/exchange traded derivatives & structured products) or services mentioned herein to assess whether they are appropriate for you in view of your investment experience, objectives, financial resources and relevant circumstances. The price of investment products may move up or down. Losses may be incurred as well as profits made as a result of buying and selling investment products.
- Please refer to HSBC's U.S. Stock Trading webpage for eligibility requirements and additional information related to trading US stocks.

China A Shares and Exchange Traded Funds

- Investment in China Connect Eligible Securities through Shanghai-Hong Kong and Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect involves risks. You should carefully consider whether any investment products or services mentioned herein are appropriate for you in view of your investment experience, objectives, financial resources and relevant circumstances. The price of securities may move up or down. Losses may be incurred and profits may be made as a result of buying and selling securities.
- For further information, you should refer to the risk disclosures and other terms set out in the China Connect/Shanghai-Hong Kong and Shenzhen-Hong Kong Stock Connect Terms and Conditions.

Gold Trading

- The price of gold is volatile and customers should recognise that value of their investment may go down as well as up. HSBC Gold Token is not principal protected and has the possible loss of principal invested. It is also not insured by any government agency. HSBC Gold Token does not represent a deposit of money and provides no yield nor interest.
- There is no market for the trading of the Tokens. Investors in general may only redeem their investment by selling the Tokens back to the Bank.
- The information shown in the website is neither a recommendation, an offer, nor a solicitation for any investment product or service. Past performance is no guide to future performance. Investors should refer to the individual product explanatory memorandum or offering document for further details and risks involved.

Issued by The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited

- The Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation Limited is the issuer and product arranger of HSBC Gold Token. The Securities and Futures Commission (the 'SFC') has authorised the issue of the Principal Brochure as part of the offering documents for HSBC Gold Token. The SFC does not take any responsibility for the contents of the offering documents and makes no representation as to its accuracy or completeness. The SFC's authorisation is not a recommendation or endorsement of HSBC Gold Token nor does it guarantee the commercial merits of HSBC Gold Token or its performance. It does not mean HSBC Gold Token is suitable for all investors nor is it an endorsement of its suitability for any particular investor or class of investors.

Bonds / CDs

- Bonds / CDs are mainly medium to long-term fixed income products, not for short-term speculation. You should be prepared to hold your bonds / CDs for the full tenor; you could lose part or all of your principal if you choose to sell the bond / CD prior to maturity.
- It is the issuer who pays interest and repays principal of bonds / CDs. If the issuer of your bond / CD defaults, you might not be able to receive back the interest and principal. You bear the credit risk of the issuer and have no recourse to HSBC unless HSBC is the issuer itself.
- Indicative prices of bonds / CDs are available, but prices will fluctuate with market changes. Factors affecting market price of bonds / CD include, and are not limited to, fluctuations in interest rates, credit spreads, and liquidity premiums. The fluctuation in yield generally has a greater effect on prices of longer tenor bonds / CDs. There is an inherent risk that losses may be incurred rather than profit made as a result of buying and selling bonds / CDs.
- If you wish to sell bonds / CDs, HSBC may repurchase it based on the prevailing market price under normal market circumstances, but the selling price may differ from the original buying price due to changes in market conditions.
- There may be exchange rate risks if you choose to convert payments made on bonds / CDs to your home currency.
- The secondary market for bonds / CDs may not provide significant liquidity or may trade at prices based on the prevailing market conditions and may not be in line with the expectations of holders of bonds / CDs.
- If the bonds / CDs are redeemed early, you might not receive the same rates of return when you use the funds to purchase other products.

Currency Conversion

- The value of your foreign currency and RMB deposit will be subject to the risk of exchange rate fluctuation. If you choose to convert your foreign currency and RMB deposit to other currencies at an exchange rate that is less favourable than the exchange rate in which you made your original conversion to foreign currency and RMB, you may suffer loss in principal/investment.

The remuneration for sales staff is determined based on the staff's overall performance with reference to a wide range of factors, and is subject to review from time to time, for the purpose of encouraging the building of deep, long-lasting and mutually valuable relationships with customers. It is not determined solely on financial performance.

Making available to you any advertisements, marketing or promotional materials, market information or other information relating to a product or service shall not, by itself, constitute solicitation of the sale or recommendation of any product or service. If you wish to receive solicitation or recommendations from us, please contact us and, where relevant, go through our suitability assessment before transacting.
