Remarks:

1. Permanent address proof is also required if it is different from the current residential address.
2. If the address proof is neither in English nor Chinese, an English/Chinese translation of the same document should be obtained. The translator (e.g. CPA, lawyer, notary public, domestic helper agency, translation company etc.) should sign and date the translated copy. The translator's name and position should also be provided clearly in capital letters and stamped with the company chop (if applicable).
3. Address proof with a Post Office box (P.O. box) or C/O address is not acceptable.
4. The acceptance of address proof may vary from time to time and is subject to our final decision.
