

[The Story Continues] Video script:

Hong Kong is not just a city.

It's a story of progress.

We support everyone in Hong Kong starting a new page.

You can't always read the future,

but you can start writing it today.

Overnight success takes many nights of hard work.

Happily ever after is just the beginning of something even better.

If you're willing to try,

new adventure is always waiting.

Progress is never easy,

but if you believe the story continues, it will.
