What is the premium payment period?

The premium payment period follows that of the Basic Plan. You should pay the premium for the entire premium payment period. Any delay or missing of the payment of premiums due may lead to policy lapse and the amount, if any, you get back may be significantly less than what you have paid.

How is the premium of this benefit determined?

 The premium is determined according to Insurance Age[^] and sex of the Life Insured, the sum insured of the Basic Plan and whether the Life Insured smokes. The premium for this benefit, after deduction of Policy Premium Charge, will be allocated to the Account Value of the Basic Plan.

What are the charges for this benefit?

- A Policy Premium Charge deduction will be applied to premiums for this benefit before such premiums are allocated to the Account Value of the Policy.
- A monthly Insurance Charge for this benefit, which may be increased by the Company from time to time, is paid via deduction from the Account Value of the Policy to provide protection of this benefit.

For details of these charges, please refer to the respective product brochure of Basic Plan and the provisions of this benefit.

What doesn't it cover?

- "Major Illness" does not include:
 - (1) Any pre-existing condition from which the Life Insured was suffering prior to the Issue Date of the Policy, the effective date of this benefit or the effective date of last reinstatement/last change of Life Insured, whichever is the latest; or
 - (2) Any illness contracted by the Life Insured within the first 60 days following the Issue Date of the Policy or the effective date of this benefit or the effective date of last reinstatement/last change of Life Insured, whichever is the latest, except caused by Accident; or
 - (3) Any Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) or any HIV-related illness including Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS) or any mutations, derivation or variations thereof (except for the Major Illness "HIV Due to BloodTransfusion and Occupationally Acquired HIV").

When will this Supplementary Benefit terminate?

- This benefit will automatically terminate from the earlier of the following dates and the premium for this benefit shall cease to be payable:
 - the time the Policy terminates, lapses, or whenever applicable, expires, is surrendered, is converted to reduced paid-up insurance or is converted to extended term insurance; and
 - (2) on the payment of this Major Illness Benefit (Advance Payment).

Important notes

- A claim must be submitted within 90 days of becoming aware that the Life Insured suffers from one of the Major Illness.
- If the Life Insured is diagnosed in the Mainland China as suffering from one of the major illnesses, medical evidence proof which establishes the validity of the claim must be provided by a Designated Mainland China Hospital*.
- When this Supplementary Benefit becomes payable, the Policy together with all Supplementary Benefits (if any) will be terminated.
- Inflation risk-cost of living is likely to be higher in the future than it is today due to inflation, therefore you may receive less from the Policy in real term in the future even if the Company meets all of its contractual obligations.
- Premium Adjustment Risk-Premium may be adjusted at any Policy Anniversary. Any change in premium rate at the time of adjustment is based on factors including but not limited to actual claims experiences, outlook of future claims experiences, expenses incurred, etc. A notice of such premium adjustment will be sent to the Policyholder no less than 30 days prior to it taking effect.
- The information shown is intended as a general summary. You should read this factsheet in conjunction with the respective product brochure of Basic Plan and illustration. Please refer to the provisions of this Supplementary Benefit for the detailed terms and conditions.
